1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the cold air. It was a sharp contrast to the warm, humid air of the tropics. I had heard that the weather in the north was harsh, but I didn't realize just how cold it would be.

I had been told that the people in the north were friendly, but I didn't know what to expect. I had heard that they were rude and unfriendly, but I was determined to see for myself. I had been on a mission to help the people of the north, and I was not going to let anything stop me. I was going to show them that I was a good person, and that I was willing to help them in any way I could.

I had been told that the people in the north were poor, but I didn't know what to expect. I had heard that they were rich and powerful, but I was determined to see for myself. I had been on a mission to help the people of the north, and I was not going to let anything stop me. I was going to show them that I was a good person, and that I was willing to help them in any way I could.
